TO ADVERTISERS.—THE VERMONT DAILY TRANSCRIPT has the largest circulation in St. Albans and in Franklin County, of any daily paper, and on that account, if no other, the best medium for advertising.

Local Items.

Interesting matter, original or selected, may always be found on the first page.

OUR DAILY.—Those wishing to secure copies of our daily paper can do so at Merrifield's and Baker's bookstores, a well as of carriers, and at the office. Copies of our weekly paper may also be had at these places.

THEFT.—A man giving his name as Edward Ames was arrested this afternoon by Policeman L. M. Downing, charged with stealing a watch, the property of Mr. Robinson. He had sold the watch, but it was afterwards recovered.

DEAD HOSE.—A nuisance in the shape of a horse's carcass has adorned Lake Street nearly all day in front of the Blacksmith Shop, and near the Foundry. Where is our Sanitary Commission? The horse belonged to Mr. Paige, of Bakersfield, and fell out of the wagon, it is said, from over-feeding.

ENTIRE NOTES CLUB.—The first hop of this club for the season, came off last night at Academy Hall, about forty couples were in attendance, and we are informed that everything passed off pleasantly.

PERSONAL.—Capt. Almont Barnes left for Washington last evening to enter upon the discharge of his duties as clerk in the Agricultural Department.

Luther C. Dodge, who has been in California for a number of years, has returned to Burlington, and, it is thought, will make that city his future residence.

Richard C. Morse, once an editor of the New York Observer, died in Germany on Tuesday last week, in the 74th year of his age.

Mary Harlan, who has just become Mrs. Robert T. Lincoln, was tastefully and handsomely dressed at the wedding, in rich white silk, trimmed with white satin, with pearl ornaments.

Franklin County Court.

SEPTEMBER TERM.

HON. WM. C. WILSON, Presiding Judge.

HON. GEO. ADAMS, Asst. Judges.

HON. W. C. STEVENS,)

The Jury in the case of Kenerson vs. Bacon rendered, on Tuesday, a verdict for plaintiff to recover $1 and costs.

On Tuesday afternoon, the case of Fairbanks vs. Niles was called for trial—action to recover damages for an alleged warranty on a flock of sheep. Messrs. Dewey & Noble, Farrington, and Royce, for plaintiff; Messrs. C. N. Davenport, of Brattleboro, Edson & Rand, and Hill & Safford, for defendant.

PROF. CARNS' CONCERT.—Prof. Carns, the blind musician, will give one of his wonderful entertainments at the Academy Hall this evening, commencing at 7 1/2 o'clock, and we hope the room will be well filled. The following speaks for itself:

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN.

This is to certify that I have attended one of Prof. Carns' Concerts, and can say in all sincerity that his performances are as wonderful as delightful. The sentiment of his pieces is wholly exceptional, and is indeed of the highest order. There is so great a variety as to keep the attention fixed and not permit the interest to flag. The compass of his voice cannot fail to excite astonishment and admiration. He seems master of the theory and science of music; and this enables him to introduce freshness and originality into all his efforts. I feel it is to be appreciated, it is because he rises above rather than falls below the common standard. His devotion to music causing him to regard it as a thing almost sacred and heavenly, will not permit him to stoop to please the rabble. As Prof. Carns has spent some weeks in this community, I may add that from a brief acquaintance, I believe him to be a gentleman in feeling and deportment, a man of high-toned moral character, of great frankness and truthfulness, and worthy of the patronage of any man or community. Especially do I commend him to the Christian charity of my brethren in the ministry every where.

A. DEWITT.

J. C. BAKER, of Wallingford, has entered into partnership with D. E. Nicholson, of Rutland.

SMART OLD LADY.—Mrs. Davis, 88 years of age, has wove two large carpets and spun and wove several webs the past summer.

A MATCH FOR HIM.—The St. Albans Transcript says, Mr. William C. Clark, of that place, has been a stage-driver since December, 1840—32 years. We have a match for him in Mr. Edmund Shattuck, of Windsor, who began the business in 1810, and continued it till 1852—being 34 years—and who still occupies his own "box," every day, in the village, in the service of the public. During all this long period, he has never met with any serious accident, nor upset a coach with passengers in it. That he has always been one of the most favorite and genial drivers of all this region, none who ever knew him will doubt. This appears to be a pretty even match for Mr. Clark, with a balance in favor of Mr. Shattuck. Long may both of them thrive!—Free Press.

RACES AT BAKERSFIELD.—The following races will come off at Bakersfield on Thursday, October 15, 1868: A wager for $200 between N. Anderson's horse, known as "Roderick," and R. Brown's bay mare, known as "Lady Belmont." Mile heats, best 2 in 3, to harness. Lady Belmont to have the pole in each race.

Second, a purse of $20, open to all 3 years old colts; half mile heats, best 3 in 5, to harness.

Fourth, a purse of $25, open to all running horses; half mile, best 3 in 5, to harness.

DISGRACEFUL ROW.—The Middlebury Register says, a disgraceful row took place in the College Chapel, on Wednesday afternoon, between the Sophomores and the Freshmen, in which one young man was knocked down and others seriously threatened. Of the merits of the case we know nothing, but suppose the Sophomores must have been the aggressors. We are glad to learn that the Faculty are making a thorough investigation of the case, and that they will visit the offenders with summary justice we have no doubt.

Vermont Historical Society.

ANNUAL MEETING, OCT. 20TH, 1868.

The next annual meeting of the Vermont Historical Society will be held at the Society's rooms, in Montpelier, on Tuesday, October 20th, 1868, at 2 o'clock p. m. An address on the life and services of the late Hon. Jacob Collamer will be delivered by the Hon. James Barrett of Woodstock, and other papers will probably be in readiness.

The courtesy of free return tickets will be extended to persons attending the meeting by the different railroads in the State.

An opportunity to become members of the Society will be afforded to gentlemen who take an interest in its objects. By order of the Board of Managers.

GEO. F. Houghton, Rec. Sec.

St. Albans, Vt., Sept. 26, 1868.

BURLINGTON BUSINESS COLLEGE.—The fall term of this College will open October 5th, and continue in session during the year. Our readers will remember that this institution is to be a consolidation of the Bryant and Stratton College at Burlington and the Vermont Commercial College at St. Albans, under the instruction of J. H. Lansley as proprietor. The new college will open with excellent facilities for young men and young ladies to gain a thorough business education. The rooms are being refitted and renovated, with a view to comfort and convenience. Prof. S. M. Pratt, of the St. Albans College will be one of the instructors.

Re-Union of Vermont Officers.

The Fifth Annual Re-Union of Vermont officers will be held at Montpelier on Thursday, the 2nd of October next. The members of the Re-Union Society, and all Vermont officers of the army and navy are respectfully invited to attend. The usual preliminary meeting for the election of officers and other business, will be held at the Court House, at 10 o'clock, a. m. The location will be directed by Gen. P. T. Washburn, at the Hall of the House of Representatives, during the evening.

In issuing this call, it has been thought proper to state briefly the history of the organization, its aims and its objects. In the Autumn of 1861, a few officers and ex-officers issued a call for a meeting to be held at Montpelier, for the purpose of tendering a complimentary dinner to Gen. George J. Stannard, then barely recovered from the effect of his wounds received at the storming of Fort Harrison. About 75 officers assembled in response to that call, and formed a permanent organization. Since that time, meetings of the Society have annually been held, and the membership has increased to about 300, a large majority of whom have been present at the meetings.

The object of this association is simply to afford an opportunity to renew, through social intercourse, the ties of friendship formed in the field; to draw a renewed inspiration, and to renew a sense of the work yet before us from the "touch of a comrade's elbow," and the sight of the shot-rent standards under which we fought, and so many of our heroes fell; and to keep green and sacred in our hearts the memories of the five thousand who gave their lives for the cause.

GEN. WM. V. W. RIPLEY, President.

Executive Committee.

The Talisman of Fashion; the favorite of beauty; the pet of luxury in every dressing-room and boudoir; is "Barrett's Vegetable Hair Restorative." It is a sure preventive to baldness and premature gray hair, and no lady or gentleman should be without it.—St. Joseph Herald.

In The Douloureux, rub Renne's Pain-Killing Magic Oil around the ear, and especially on the prominent face bone above the ear. You thus reach the "fifth pair of nerves," which go to the face, and if you use it faithfully it soon cures. dtw.

MARRIAGES.
